About Us

Promoting Success Through Project Management

Alamo PMI is the San Antonio Chapter of the Project Management Institute. For over 20 years, we've been connecting, educating and guiding project management professionals in both public and private industry. Our chapter, which serves over 1500 members in the greater San Antonio, Texas, area, provides networking activities to advance your career and training opportunities to prepare you for the increasing demands of projects and employers all over the world. Whether you're a seasoned project manager or just starting out in your career, Alamo PMI has opportunities for you.

You. Certified.

Finding the right certification for you

PMI certification. It can be the difference between getting the job, or not. It can raise your visibility, and highlight your competency. It can be the start of a whole new chapter in your professional story. Choose from eight certifications and join the global team of over 660,000 certified professionals.

PMI Talent Triangle

Talent Triangle

While technical skills are core to project and program management, PMI research tells us they're not enough in today's increasingly complex and competitive global marketplace. The ideal skill set is a combination of technical, leadership, and strategic and business management expertise.

What this means to you — is a focus on developing the additional skills you need to meet the evolving demands of your profession. But in doing so, it also means new opportunities to elevate your value as a strategic partner in business success.

Monthly Membership Meetings

Each month, January through October, Alamo PMI hosts membership dinner meetings featuring a project management leader and subject expert. Members are kept up to date on chapter news and events, as well as, given ample time to network with colleagues and community leaders.

Volunteering

We couldn't do what we do, without you.

Volunteering is essential to APMI. Sign up through www.PMI.org's Volunteer Relationship Management System and let us know in what areas of interest you want to contribute.

There are volunteer opportunities available for everyone no matter how much time you have or whether you want to be involved at a local, national, or global level.

Enhance the profession of project management, reap the benefits of expanding connections, and leverage career advancement opportunities all while volunteering with PMI.

Student/Young Professionals

PMI memberships aren't just for working project practitioners. If you are enrolled full time in a degree-granting program at a college or university that has U.S. accreditation, or the global equivalent, a PMI student membership may be right for you.

- Interact with educated speakers at monthly chapter meetings
- Meet local professionals in the San Antonio area
- Find a mentor who can help you prepare for after college
- Learn about the many benefits of PMI certifications

Military Affairs

The project management profession is an ideal career for military veterans transitioning into the civilian workforce. Your skills are directly transferable to the project management profession.

Leading cross-functional teams to ensure accomplishment of mission objectives, managing budgets and scheduling activities, and conflict mediation and performance appraisal, are all key proficiencies military veterans and project managers share.

Discover how you can apply your skills toward an in-demand profession.

Alamo Prep Courses

The chapter offers preparation programs designed to help you pass PMI's Certification exams. Each course meets the required number of contact training hours for each certification. Our instructors are diverse certified practitioners who offer an array of test-taking hints, sample scenario based questions, training reinforcement exercises and practical knowledge needed for the actual exam.

Currently the chapter offers exam preparations courses for the PMP (Project Management Professional), PMI-ACP (PMI Agile Certified Practitioner) - the hottest and fastest growing certification in Project Management and looking to offer PMI-PBA (PMI Professional in Business Analysis) in the very near future. Each one of these valued credentials will open doors and communicate to employers that you're an experienced, knowledgeable and certified practitioner.
